John L. Keith, Kate Patton and Polly Lynch are all residents of the Division, and all black. Last night Keith stopped a row which the two women had started in his saloon by rendering Kate unconscious by means of a good beating. He was released on leaving $50 collateral. The District Woman Suffrage Association have offered two prizes of $10 and $5 for the two best essays in favor of weman suffrage written by pupils of the eighth grade schools of the District. The competition is open until September 10. Mrs. H. B. Sperry, Mrs. E. H. Mohl and Mrs. E. A. Chambers are the prize committee.

Two negroes engaged in disturbing the peace of Takoma Park on Saturday evening went into the drug store of Mr. Moss and made themselves exceedingly objectionable by their loud and beisterous language. The proprietor struck one of them with an Indian club and laid him out. A little while after-ward they returned and threw a stone and laid him out. A little while afterward they returned and threw a stone through the window, striking Mr. Moss on the head, inflicting a severe wound.

Several thousand people witnessed the exhibition drill of the High School Cadets last evening on the plaza in front of the Arlington Hotel. The cadets were in command of Major Berden and the evolutions showed careful training.
Commissioner Douglass reviewed the bedy from the balcony. Lieutenant Hart of Company B afterward treated his company sumptuously at a soda water stand on Seventh street.
Dr. Samuel F. Linn, of 1834 ThirtySecond street, Georgetown, yesterday afternoon went home and found Guy Glascow, a fifteen-year old boy who lived next door, on the fence that divides the back yards. The boy had been often told not to get onto the fence, and as soon as he saw him Dr.
Samuel got his gun and filled young Guy's back full of bird shot. The boy is very seriously hurt though not necessarily fataly and the doctor was arrested.

rested.

The Gentlemen's Driving Club of Alexandria has elected W. B. Daingerfield, president: Richard Windsor, vice-president: B. B. Smith, secretary; and M. B. Harlow, treasurer. Mr. Daingerfield will appoint the executive board, and arrangements will be made for a meeting at the track for the early part of next month

The National Roll Paper and Cutter Company has been incorporated in Alexandria. The officers are E. C. Ford, president; G. T. Jacobs, vice-president; Neil Dumont, secretary, and R. S. Fietcher, treasurer, and general manager, all of this city. The capital

R. S. Fletcher, treasurer and general manager, all of this city. The capital stock is to be $250,000.

Sixty-five dollars, besides a lot of clothes and provisions, were distributed to the canal sufferers yesterday at the Georgetown Station House.

The steamer Corcoran will leave her wharf on the National Rifles' excursion at 6:30 o'clock, and not 7:30, as published in Sunday's Herald.

Last night Wm. S. Harding got into a dispute with his son-in-law. Charles C. Rehner, over some domestic matters, and the quarrel ended in Harding's plunging a knife into Rehner's side. They were at Harding's residence. No. 1403 Third street northwest, and Rehner was at once removed to his home, 2035 Ninth street. Harding was taken to the Second Precinct Station House, and on the way stated to an officer that he intended to kill his son-in-law. The wound is not serious.

John Hawkins attacked E. L. Lee, the colored cook at the Washington lun, above Georgetown, yesterday. The instrument used was a large carving knife. A general scrimmage ensued, during which Mrs. Humphrey got cut on the foot. A stage driver named Hutchisen drew a pistol on Hawkins, and the latter was tied with a rope until Officer Riley arrived. This ought to have been excitement enough for one day, but Hawkins wasn't satisfied. As Officer Riley arrived. This ought to have been excitement enough for one day, but Hawkins wasn't satisfied. As seen as he reached his cell in the station-house he tied two pocket handker-chiefs together and tried to commit suicide. He had them tied to the grating, and was just getting ready to mess up the place with his corpse when Staton-keeper Gorman found him.

Stone Battle Between floys. The Seventh Precinct Station House bids fair to rival some of the Kinder-gartens. Warrants for thirty-three patiens. Warrants for thirty-three school-children have been sworn out and eight have been arrested. The difficulty grows out of a school-boy fend between the pupils at Trinity Church Parochial School and those of Wormley College. They had a pitched battle with stones some time ago and there is a deep hatred rankling in their bosoms that can only be quenched by policemen.

The Knights Templar Excursion.

The Knights Templar know how to entertain and provide pleasure on all occasions when they take the part of host. De Molay Commandery, No. 4, will furnish additional proof of the correctness of this assertion next Thursday. On that day they will give an excursion via the B. & O. road to Bay Ridge, and will be glad to have their friends join with them in making the trip. The price of the ticket is $1, good on all of the trains for that day running to the popular bay resort. Those who go can feel certain of having a good time. Knights Templar Excursion

To say that it will improve with repetition is not a severe criticism to make of a performance. It is about as harsh a criticism as can be made of the rendering of "Nanon" by the Summer Opera Company at Albaugh's last night. With the exception of Miss Carle and Mr. Pruett everyone seemed to be at sea. They had not mastered their lines or their stage business. At times they sea. They had not mastered their lines or their stage business. At times they appeared at a loss to know what to do. The good work shown in "Amorita" was lacking. The performance undoubtedly dragged. But when all this is said there is a great deal left to be said that is complimentary. The duet between Miss Reed and Mr. Allen in the second act. "When I Gaze Into Her Eyes So Bright," was excellently sung, and enabled the former to display a full, rich voice to advantage. Miss Lamont, who sat in one of the boxes, signified her pleasure by bestowing her coraage bouquet on the fair singer. Walter Allen was warmly welcomed by his many friends. many friends.

Why She Wished to Die

Why She Wished to Die.

A woman was just sinking into the deep drowsiness induced by an overdose of laudanum, when Officer Hancock reached her last night. Her husband is an inmate of the Garfield Hospital, her son is held by the police, and she resolved to end her existence. Her name is Pelor, and her residence 974 Boundary street. She told the officer that her intention was to first kill her baby and then herself. Dr. Henderson was called in and the woman was in a fair way to recovery this morning.

Her son's name is Walter E. Pelor. He was up before Judge Miller, charged with being a suspicious character. Breaking into a peanut stand was the extent of his wrong doing and the boy was sent back to his mother after a lecture from the Judge. The officers ture from the Judge. The officers stated that the family were deserving people, but in destitute circumstances. Assistance for them has been asked for.
